Shield

Eldridge, Iowa

We, the senior class of 1963
dedicate our yearbook to Don Anderson, our guidance director, our class sponsor, our friend.

Principal's Message

The 1963 SHIELD portrays the important events of the 1962-63 school year. The events which occurred during this year were a definite part of the life at North Scott Junior-Senior High School. Each student should now analyze himself to determine if he has found a place in the curricular and extra-curricular programs which are offered. Only by being active in both areas can a student obtain a well rounded education.

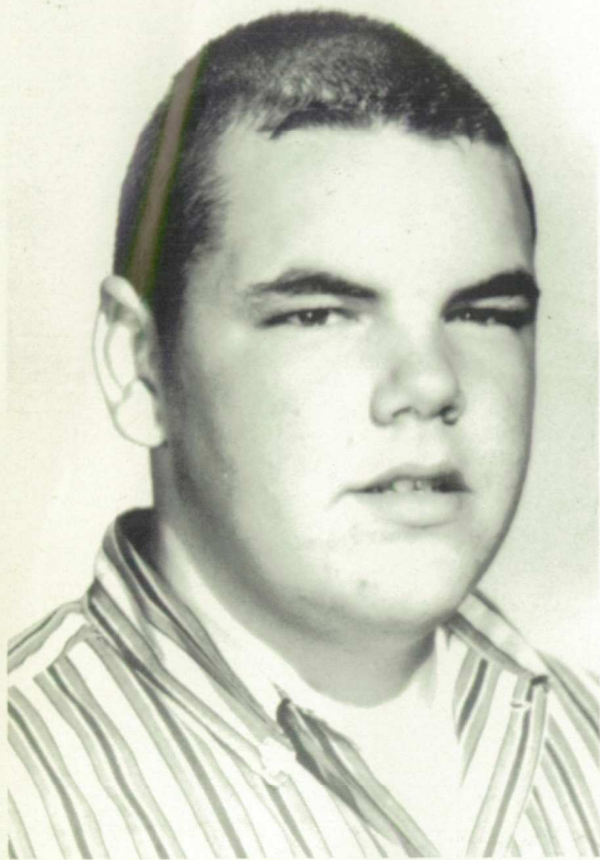

Melvin E. Heiler, Principal

We Miss

Jim Dannatt

IN MEMORIAM

North Scott lost two good friends and colleagues from the Class of '64. Joyce Plambeck and Jim Dannatt were both active in school organizations. They were a credit to their school and community. We will all miss them, but we can be thankful for knowing them for the short time that we did.

TRUST

We do not see.

*It was not meant for you and me
To look beyond the near, dim West
Dividing the present from the rest —
From the to-come.*

*Just one by one
The steps we take;
Just one by one the glories wake,
Or tempests beat. We go
Nearer and nearer to the setting sun, and know
But this, Whatever is, is best —*

*Sweetest of words confessed
By love's warm breath
in life or death.*

*We go
Led by His shielding hand and know
He will not make,
Except for love's sweet sake,
A single day
Shadowed along life's bitter way.
When it is night
We rest in this — He leadeth toward the light.*

Heaps of firewood blazed victoriously at the "home-coming eve" bonfire.

Suspense was mounting as the top five and their attendants led the pre-aud snakedance.

Left, "...my father is thirtynine, my brother is fourteen and my mother has brown hair," reveals Carole Auliff

Space Age Homecoming with Venus as queen and Allen Glover as Pluto, her escort; parodied N.S.H.S.'s celebration.

"Oh no, not me, I don't believe it!" exclaimed Vonnie as her name was announced.

Dean Schaff, emcee, crowns Vonnie Miller, Queen of the 1962 Homecoming Festivities.

Queen Vonnie knights the captains, Terry Carsten, Jerry Schaefer, and Jim Koberg, insuring a victory.

Radiant with her royal status, Vonnie witnesses a victory over Prairie.

The royal court and their escorts: Allen Schnoor, Karen Siem, Bob Schnecloth, Gloria MacStay, Queen Vonnie Miller, Allen Woodford, Dianne McLaughlin, Gary Rohwer, Janice McDannel, and Ron Oliver.

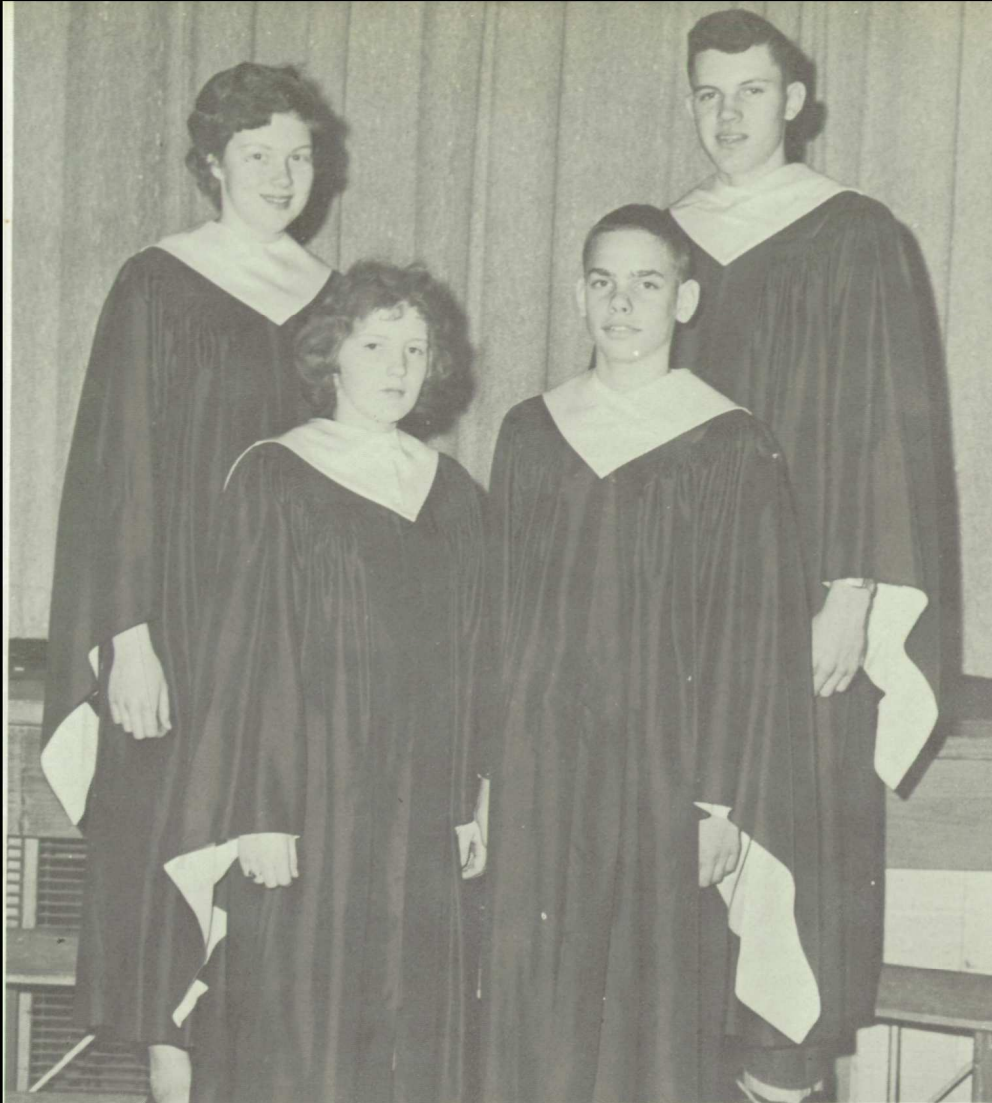

The choraliers, a group composed of 16 mixed voices, found themselves busy performing at various school functions and concerts.

Vocal

A girls' quartet including Sharon Blondell, Jean Hunt, Francis Kay, and Barb Schultz entertained at school functions throughout the year. Pictured with them is their accompanist Carol Daniels.

Out of 35 students competing, two quartets qualified for state. In picture at left are, Sharon Blondell, Marlys Drumm, Russ Krieter, and Ron Oliver. Below from left to right are, Lois Auliff, Jean Hunt, Gary Anderson, and Norm Sawyer.

F. T. A.

F.T.A. CLUB AND OFFICERS--President, Jim Darland; Vice-President, Ila Rock; Secretary, Bruce Mohr; Treasurer, Dean Schaff; Historian, Betty Miller; and Librarian, Charlotte Robertson.

F.T.A. students took over for teachers on numerous occasions,

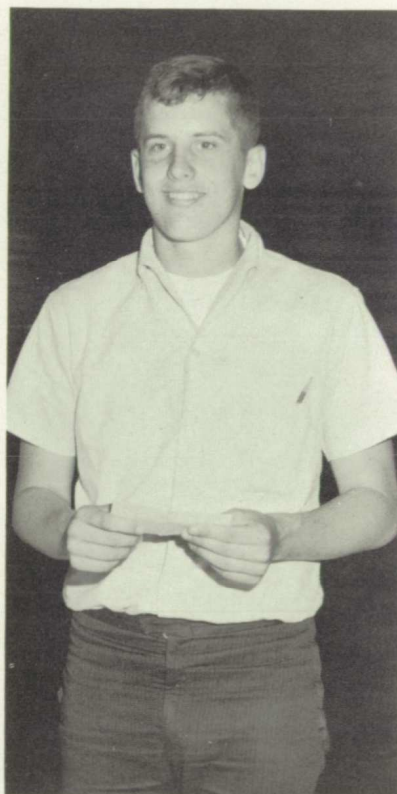

Winners of the North Scott Teacher's Association scholarships aimed at making college possible for future teachers were Ila Jean Rock, third from left and Bruce Mohr, right.

North Scott's own Romeo and Juliet are chosen according to their acting ability. This year the best actor and actress awards went to Dean Schaff and Vickie Naumann.

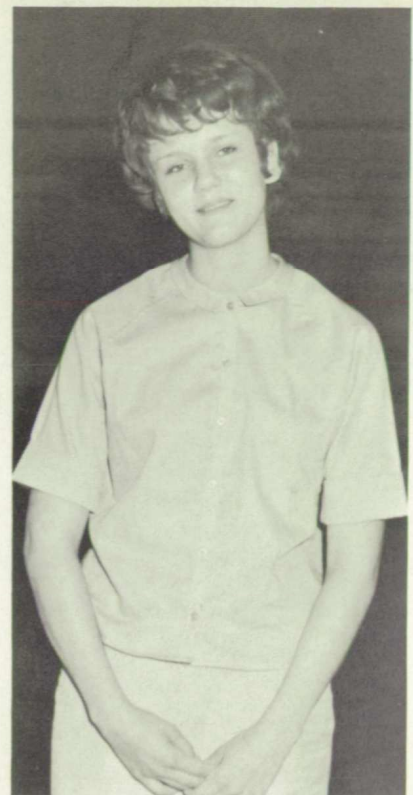

Their knowledge of United Nations organization and functions brought awards to Pat Mohr and Jack Darland.

The Bausch and Lomb Award presented to the Senior with the outstanding record for scientific achievement this year went to Wayne Fisher.

A W A R D S D A Y

Peg Schneckloth, North Scott Sophomore, managed to type 72 net words for 10 minutes and brought home a trophy for the trophy case.

Five boys, Wayne Fisher, Dean Schaff, Jim Engle, Jack Darland, Jim Kuhl, and Don Sierk received commendation in the Time Magazine test.
